You have extensive administrative experience and want to develop your career as a Patent Paralegal? – We should get in touch!

BARDEHLE PAGENBERG is one of Europe's leading Intellectual Property law firms in Europe with offices in countries of prime IP relevance in Europe, namely Germany, Spain, and France. We guide our clients in the procurement of IP rights and represent them in litigation in all fields of Intellectual Property. Our team of passionate patent attorneys and attorneys-at-law provides top-tier legal and technical advice to our clients in the areas of patent, trademark, and design law.

For our office in Barcelona, we are currently looking for a highly motivated Paralegal (m/f/d).

Together with your colleagues, you will perform diverse tasks in the field of the application, monitoring, and administration of IP rights. In particular, you will aid in preparing and filing new patent applications, docket and monitor deadlines and provide support in correspondence with the relevant offices and clients. Your position will require you to be self-reliant in cooperating with the attorneys in charge and to perform your tasks mainly in English.

Your profile:

- You have extensive administrative experience
- You are eager to learn and a pro-active, organized, and diligent person
- You have excellent oral and written command of the English and Spanish language
- The European patent administration certification (EPAC) would be an advantage, but is not required

Your perspective:

- Dive into the fascinating daily business of a patent paralegal in one of the most renowned IP law firms in Europe where you can improve your skills as a paralegal
- Take advantage of the possibility of completing an internship at our Munich headquarters
- Benefit from flexible working hours, with the option to work from home on selected days and a work-life balance tailored to your needs
- Become a member of our dedicated team and enjoy our great atmosphere

This is your chance! Please send your English application by e-mail to info@bardehle.es
