BARDEHLE PAGENBERG appoints a new partner and two counsel

BARDEHLE PAGENBERG is delighted about the development of young talent in its team of patent attorneys and attorneys-at-law and, at the beginning of the new year, appoints one former associate as partner and two associates as counsels.

Johannes Lang, new Managing Partner at BARDEHLE PAGENBERG as of the beginning of the year, appreciates the outstanding commitment of the three attorneys:

“Thanks to their professional excellence, passion, and enthusiasm, Dr. Nikolaus Buchheim, Anita Peter, and Dr. Martin Drews have developed to become fundamental pillars of our impressive team. We acknowledge this development by appointing them partner and counsels, thus continuing our constant growth from within our own ranks.”

Dr. Christof Karl, the firm’s new Co-Managing Partner since January, adds: “These appointments underline the successful development of talented professionals in our firm. They strengthen the position of BARDEHLE PAGENBERG as one of the leading law firms in intellectual property law.”
