BARDEHLE PAGENBERG continues to grow with Henrik Skødt as a new partner in Barcelona

With the arrival of Henrik Skødt as a partner, the Barcelona office of BARDEHLE PAGENBERG strengthens its expertise in the fields of pharmacy, chemistry, and life sciences in general.

Henrik Skødt, European Patent Attorney and UPC Representative, joins the office of BARDEHLE PAGENBERG in Spain as a partner. He brings to BARDEHLE PAGENBERG more than 20 years of professional experience in the protection and defense of intellectual property assets, and an extraordinary expertise in European patent oppositions and appeals.

This reinforcement of BARDEHLE PAGENBERG's Spanish team allows the firm to strengthen its offer of integrated services to its national and international clients, taking advantage of Henrik Skødt's wealth of experience both in private practice and in industry.

"We feel very lucky to welcome a professional of Henrik Skødt's caliber as this allows us to broaden our offer of services to different clients and industries," says Mathieu de Rooij, Managing Partner of the Barcelona office of BARDEHLE PAGENBERG, and continues: "Henrik Skødt's combination of scientific and legal skills is unique for the Spanish market, which complements our current team's skills very well. Together we can make sure our clients' needs in relation to IP are met."
